

Help Us Fulfill the Promise in Palm Springs

Invest in Education. Empower a Workforce. Transform a Community.

The new College of the Desert Palm Springs Campus, set to open in Fall 2027, will be more than a college—it will be a regional engine of opportunity. With your support, we can develop and activate life-changing programs now to serve students and our community sooner.

Construction Is Underway — Programming Can't Wait

While buildings are rising, the opportunity is here today to invest in the programs that will bring the campus to life.

Your support can help us:

- Accelerate workforce training programs with PaCE (Partnership and Community Education).
- Build and launch programs in Culinary Arts, Health Sciences, Artificial Intelligence and AI Hub, Digital Media and Film, Hospitality, Architecture, Business, Technology, and more.
- Expand dual enrollment and career pathways for local high school students.
- Bring four-year degree programs to our own University Center in Palm Springs.

Fast-Track Local Success — Ways to Give

Now is the moment to shape the future of education and opportunity in the Coachella Valley.

- Program development sponsorships and grants
- Naming opportunities for buildings, facilities, spaces, AI Hub, training programs, classrooms, labs, kitchens, and studios
- Workforce innovation funds for cutting-edge training
- Scholarships and internships for adult learners, career changers, and first-generation students
- Pre-apprentice and apprenticeship programs that pairs classroom instruction with longer term on the job paid work training

Help us open doors—and keep them open—for thousands of students, businesses, and community residents. Your investment today brings learning, opportunity, and prosperity closer to home.
